Q. Write and learn the given paragraphs.

1. My Neighbour

Mr. Sheetal Das is my neighbour. He is a businessman. He owns a spacious bungalow and a car. His house is well furnished. It is equipped with all the comforts of life. I am, however, sad to see that he does not have very good relations with his neighbours. Once he called police against one of his neighbours. It happened just because he thought that his neighbour's children had broken his window glass. The children had of course denied it. He has a servant. This poor boy is not given enough food to eat and I have seen him beating him once or twice. He never donates any money for any cause. I wonder why he behaves in such an ignoble manner. May God grant him wisdom !

2. My School Library

My school owns a good library. It has two rooms.

One of these rooms is called the reading room.

Here, the students sit and study quietly. The other room is bigger. In one of its parts, there are several cupboards full of books. Each cupboard has a special branch of knowledge hidden within the books. I am very fond of the cupboard which contains story books. The library has books suited to students of all age-groups. The library is a great source of pleasure and knowledge. A school without a library is like a kitchen without food.
