

1. The paragraph has many mistakes. The verb should be in past tense. Rewrite this paragraph and change the verb to the past tense.

Once upon a time I am coming from Ajmer to Kota . I am enjoying while driving while listening Al of sudden I will see a truck which is coming from opposite direction. I have been shocked to see the truck I can see a car also which was going towards the truck. I noticed one thing that truck driver is driving his truck in a zig zag manner he was under the influence of liquor. As the truck driver was see the car he is trying to apply the brakes but he cannot. Car driver is also trying to apply the brakes but he cannot. trucks driver is losing his control , truck is bumping into the car , car is turning up side down , car drivers head bumped into the divider lot of people gathered there and they will be rushing towards the car driver in the mean time truck driver is trying to flee away , people has caught him beat him black and blues . Somebody has called the ambulance .Ambulance is coming and are rushing him to the hospital and I will be called the police, police came and is handcuffed the truck driver, I am going to the hospital and there is a need of blood, I m going to donate my blood, thank god he is saved.

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....