big cat — kills mice every day — mice scared to move out — don't know what to do — call meeting — discuss how to save themselves — a smart young mouse suggests — tie bell around cat's neck — bell will ring — warn them of cat's arrival — they can run and hide — everyone happy — very good — all agree — wise mouse says — who will tie the bell — tells them it is easy to give suggestions — difficult to put into practice

The illustrations depict a sequence of events: 1. A white cat is shown in a doorway, looking towards a group of mice. 2. A group of mice are gathered together, looking concerned. 3. A pink mouse is holding a red bell, showing it to the other mice. 4. The mice are all looking at the pink mouse, who is speaking. 5. The white cat is shown with a red bell around its neck. 6. The mice are gathered around the cat, looking at the bell.
