Learn and write the following question and answers

Q3. How is food prepared and served in wedding parties?

Ans3. Food is prepared by special cooks called halwais at wedding parties. It is prepared in large vessels. Food is then placed in serving bowls and served in good crockery.

Q4. What is midday meal scheme? Why is that important?

Ans4. Supreme court has given the order that all government run primary school must provide their students with hot cooked food called middaymeal.

It is important because many children in our country do not even get one full meal a day and they cannot study properly .Therefore, to encourage such children government has introduced this scheme.
