

Subject- English

Class- IV

Topic- Wake up

Complete the below exercise and match your answers with the answer key

buzzing (verb) : making a continuous low sound hurry up (verb) : to do something more quickly because there is not much time lovely (adjective) : beautiful sleepy head (noun) : a way of addressing someone who is not completely awake tiniest (adjective) : very small in size

 A LITTLE MORE OF THE POEM: [Use Cordova Smart Class Software on the smart board in class to do these exercises.]

Answer these questions.

- Why does the poet want us to wake up?
- What does the poet call the person who is sleeping till late, in his bed?
- According to the poet he can hear three sounds in the morning. What are they?
- The poet talks about cows, horses, sheep and ducks. Where do you think he lives?
- In the poem, the poet wants us to before coming out.
 [Tick (✓) the correct option.]
 (a) wash and dress (b) have breakfast (c) make your bed
- 'Every one is up and about.' This means that
 [Tick (✓) the correct option.]
 (a) all the people are scattered
 (b) everyone is playing
 (c) all the people are active and busy
- Give two adjectives to describe the given words.
 (a) day
 (b) chicken

Complete the below exercise and match your answers with the answer key .

Answer these questions.

1. The poet wants us to wake up to experience the wonders of the lovely day. He wants us to see the beauty of the rising sun, enjoy the sweet song of the birds and the buzzing of the bees.
2. The poet calls the person who sleeps till late as sleepyhead.
3. In the poem, the poet can hear three sounds in the morning. He can hear the birds, singing in the trees and the buzzing of the bees. He can also hear the sounds of the farm animals like the cow, horses, duck, sheep and chicken.
4. I think the poet lives in a farm.
5. (a) wash and dress
6. (c) all the people are active and busy
7. (a) lovely, beautiful, busy
(b) tiniest, noisy, yellow