D. 1. Yes, history would have been different if India were united when

Mahmud of Ghazni invaded India. Firstly, Indians could have saved their wealth from Mahmud of Ghazni. Mahmud of Ghazni looted most of India's wealth. Secondly, the Slave Dynasty would not have invaded India and ruled over it.

2. This indicates that Cholas had a well-organised irrigation system. They were visionaries. They used methods of artificial water cropping. Huge tanks were also constructed to collect rainwater. People took active interest in all the developmental works.
